It's A Long Way Up!

Climbing Mt. Everest — or raising $12,500 — "it's a long way up" says Advertising and Publicity chairman Bill Sperry (at the bottom of the ladder). He wasn't talking about the ladder climb, but about the trip up the hill for the Rescue Squad ambulance toward a goal of $12,500. The ambulance and chart was prepared by squad members, Richard and Mary Bartelt. Finance chairman Ray Noble (adjusting the ambulance) says that by the time readers see this photo the ambulance may have moved from the $4,000 mark to the $6,000 mark or HIGHER. Watch for it on Main Street—and do your part with a donation to the drive. Tonight Squadmen and others canvass Pamplin City (OCT. 15) Monday, it's Spout Spring and next Thursday, Oct. 22, Hixburg-Hollywood. By the way . . . For a SECOND DONATION Sperry may climb the ladder, himself!

Appomattox supervisors, meeting Friday morning, approved a lengthy trailer ordinance for Appomattox County.

Any person desiring to locate a trailer or trailer park within Appomattox County must make application to the local Health Department as of Jan. 1, 1971. ## General's Relative Visits Here

Harold Parker, retired railroad engineer and Seneca Indian, made his first trip to Appomattox on Friday to sit in the McLean Parlor where his great-uncle, Col. Ely S. Parker sat 105 years ago as secretary to General U. S. Grant when terms of surrender were drawn up. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were accompanied by his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Donnally. They live at the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation, Irving, New York. Col. Parker (later General Parker) was the first Indian Commissioner of Indian affairs. Gen. Parker traced his ancestry to Hiawatha and beyond. Parkers and Donnallys, dining at Maude's, noticed that "Uncle Ely Parker" is shown by the fireplace in the Guillaume painting of the surrender; (illustrated on the place markers). General Parker is buried at Forest Lawn (Buffalo, N. Y.) Although they have several pictures of him, the Parkers were unaware of the Guillaume painting until their visit here. They said they would come back for further information from National Parkfiles about their famous great-uncle, and for additional information about Indians in this section of the U. S.
